WRITING

Choose one of the topics below and write a well-structured essay of 250 to 280 words developing your arguments and supporting them with examples.

- (A) Describe a situation where you felt a strong sense of belonging. Where were you? What made you feel that way? How does your experience align with the research described in the article?
- (B) Does the desire to belong sometimes lead individuals to compromise their true identity? Discuss the topic with reference to real life examples and/or from your own experience.
