

WRITING

Choose one of the topics below and write a well-structured essay of 250 to 280 words developing your arguments and supporting them with examples.

1. Longer life spans and improvements in the health of older people suggest that people over the age of sixty-five can continue to live full and active lives. In what ways can society benefit from the contribution that older people can make?
2. Researchers have found that sharing interests with people and having the same hobbies form strong bonds between them but that when these interests change, we change our friends. What is your personal experience of friendship? Justify your answer.
